

17/06/01      Madhuban Avyakt BapDada Om Shanti      15/02/83
Beloved Avyakt BapDada's sweet invaluable versions
on completion of the World Peace Conference.

Today the unlimited Father is seeing His serviceable children who are instruments for service. Whichever child He looks at, each one is more elevated than the next. So BapDada is seeing the speciality of every elevated and serviceable soul. BapDada is pleased that every child is an image of support and an image of upliftment for the task of world transformation. All the children are constantly co-operating in BapDada's task. Seeing such co-operative, easy yogis, such special elevated souls, the children who are instruments for service, together with having a welcoming ceremony, BapDada is congratulating the children with golden flowers of love. BapDada is seeing every child in the form of a sparkling jewel of the forehead, a jewel of contentment and a jewel of the heart. BapDada also constantly sings a song. Do you know what song He sings? He sings the song: Wah, My children, wah! Wah, sweet children, wah! Wah, the loveliest of the lovely children, wah! Wah, elevated souls, wah! You have such constant faith and intoxication, do you not? Throughout the whole cycle, you children cannot attain such fortune that God sings songs about. Devotees sing many songs praising God. All of you have also sung many songs. However, did you ever think that even God would sometimes sing songs of your praise! You are seeing in the corporeal form what you never even thought of. You have just had a conference for World Peace. All the children related very good things and by becoming the sun of knowledge, you also spread everywhere the vibrations of pure thoughts, of good wishes and pure feelings for all souls with your mind. However, BapDada is giving the essence of all the lectures that were given. You give lectures for four days and BapDada gives a lecture of just a second. The two words are "realisation" and "solution". The essence of what all of you said is realisation. Even if they don't understand the soul, if they just understand the value of human life, there can be peace. Human beings are especially powerful. If they were to realise this then, as human beings, the religion of humanity would be love and not fighting or quarrelling. The next step – the basis of human life and of humanity – depends on the type of soul: What type of soul am I? What am I? When there is this realisation, they will be able to maintain their original religion of peace. Then, move on from here. "I am an elevated soul. I am a child of the Almighty Authority". From being weak, this realisation will make you powerful. Powerful souls and master almighty authority souls can do whatever they want and how they want in a practical way. This is why you were told that the essence of all the lectures is just this – "realisation". So BapDada has heard all the lectures. BapDada is constantly with the children. Achcha.

All the souls who are surrendered in service and all the children who have come from the different zones, each of you should understand that BapDada is speaking to you. He is speaking to each one of you individually. In return for all the practical proof that all you children have shown, BapDada is seeing your form together with your name and is giving you congratulations by name. Now you are warning everyone of the changing times and there also has to be a change in the way of meeting BapDada. All of you have been thinking that when your family grows in number, the older ones will have to renounce everything. However, this renunciation is fortune. To make others move forward is to make yourself move forward. Don't think that BapDada loves the children abroad and not those in this land. Or that He loves special children. Every child is the support of the heart for BapDada and is a jewel of the crown on the head. This is why BapDada is giving love from the extreme depths of His heart to all His right hand co-operative children. It is certain that all of you, who have come from far away to bring those who are just contacts into relationship, are making them move forward in great happiness and will continue to do so.

So, at this time, all of you have come for service. Therefore, this too was service that has been accomplished. Should Baba mention the name of every zone? What if He were to mention one name and leave someone else's name out? This is why all the zones should feel that BapDada is placing their zone as the number one zone. All of those from this land and abroad are all at present residents of Madhuban. This is why BapDada is telling all the children who are present in the World Peace Hall, the children who are residents of Om Shanti Bhawan: Constantly stay in remembrance, remind others of Baba, and continue to progress at every step by making each act a memorial. At every second, continue to grant a vision of the self and BapDada in the mirror of your practical life. To such children who are bestowers of blessings and great donors, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

BapDada meeting Uncle Steve Naraine:

Do you experience yourself to be a close jewel who is seated on BapDada's heart-throne? Whilst living in a far-away country, you are not far from the heart. Seeing the child's enthusiasm for service, BapDada is pleased and is giving you the number one. You are the jewel of BapDada's eyes and are constantly in the flying stage. Therefore, BapDada is congratulating you.

BapDada meeting Auntie Betty:

As soon as you took your new birth, you received the blessing of being a serviceable child. You are an embodiment of experience. Even whilst living in Guyana, you are an embodiment of an instrument for world service and will always be this. You experience Baba's co-operation and blessings through remembrance, do you not? Your remembrance continues to reach the Father. All your thoughts continue to be successful, do they not? With one elevated thought of yours, the elevated soul, the whole family is attaining an elevated status. You are multimillion-times fortunate.

Avyakt BapDada's sweet message to all the brothers and sisters who were present for the World Peace Conference:

As always, just as I reached the subtle region, BapDada was giving all the children love and remembrance with His sweet drishti. Today, from Baba's drishti, I was experiencing rays of extreme peace, power, love and bliss emerging. It was such spiritual drishti that all these four qualities were being attained from it. It felt as though I was receiving a great deal. BapDada welcomed all of us children in this way and asked: Child, have you brought the remembrance of everyone? I said: I have brought remembrance, but I have also brought everyone's thought of invocation. Baba then said: All My lovely children who have come at this time have come to know everything, but a day will also come when they will come to meet Baba. BapDada constantly sees the scene of all the children from the subtle region. Having said this, Baba showed me a scene. Just as devotees in Bharat build images of a Shivalingam in temples, so too, I saw an image in the subtle region, but the shape of that image was round with many sparkling diamonds visible all around it. Four types of light were falling on the sparkling diamonds. They were white, green, light blue and gold. In a short space of time, that light changed into words. The word "Peace" was written in white light. The second was the word "Enthusiasm", the third word was "Zeal" and the fourth word was "Service". Baba said: All the children have served the world with a lot of zeal and enthusiasm and peaceful thoughts. Look how each soul is sparkling so much whilst in the gathering. Then Baba said: My children now know Me according to their capacity. Nevertheless, they are My children! Give all My sweetest children who have come, love and remembrance. The sound that emerges from the lips of the children who have come here is that they have come home. BapDada smiles when He hears this sound of the children. Since you children have come home, have you come to claim your full right or just a little? Baba said: Having come to the shores of the Ocean, don't go back having filled just an urn, but go back having become master oceans. Having come to the Mine don't go back with two handfuls. Then BapDada gave three types of gifts to three types of children. 1. BapDada is giving the gift of a lotus flower (kamal) to His children who are holding the pen (kalam) (Media people). Tell My children who are holding the lotus: Constantly remain detached from the tamopradhan vibrations of the world like a lotus, and also remain loving to the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. If you use your pen whilst stabilised in such a stage, your interaction becomes successful and you will also be able to do something in the name of God. 2. All the VIP children who have come have not been given a throne, but the seat of a swan. Baba said: All these VIP children who have come have power in their words. I am giving them the swan-seat. Perform any task whilst sitting on this seat. By sitting on this seat your power of discrimination will become elevated so that whatever task you carry out will be filled with speciality. Just as you carry out a task whilst seated on a chair, in the same way, your intellect should be seated on the swan-seat and then souls will continue to receive love and power even whilst you carry out any mundane work. 3. BapDada gave a very beautiful garland of flowers of light to all the surrendered serviceable children. On each light, there was one or another divine virtue written. Then Baba said: These children of Mine are those who have imbibed all divine virtues and become the embodiment. In return, BapDada is giving a gift of the garland of divine virtues to all the children who have carried out service whilst having one strength and following the directions of One. And finally, BapDada said: Relate this elevated version of BapDada to all the children: Constantly remain happy, be one who has the fortune of happiness and continue to make everyone complete with the blessings and treasures of happiness. Having heard such sweet versions and having exchanged love and remembrance, I returned to our corporeal world.

Blessing: May you be a soul who has a right every cycle by having the intoxication of your position and the awareness of the combined form.

Remain combined in the awareness of “I” and “My Baba”. Always keep this elevated position in your awareness: Today we are Brahmins and tomorrow we will become deities. Constantly remember the mantra of “Hum so, so hum” and with this intoxication and happiness you will easily forget the old world. You will always have the spiritual intoxication that you are the souls who have a right every cycle. We were this, we are this and we will become this every cycle.

Slogan: Become your own teacher and all weaknesses will automatically finish.
