

10/02/02 Avyakt BapDada 1/06/83

Reveal the new knowledge and the Bestower of Knowledge with authority and the drums of revelation will beat. (BapDada has come to meet everyone in the meeting.)

This is the gathering of all the special souls who are crowned and seated on the throne. Do all of you consider yourselves to be crowned and seated on the throne? All of you are wearing the crown of the responsibility of unlimited service, are you not? The unlimited crown means to be stable as an embodiment of unlimited remembrance. You are wearing the crown of unlimited responsibility. Rays of light and might from the crowns of the unlimited children are spreading into the unlimited. You have come out of the limited and become unlimited emperors. Since you have gone beyond the consciousness of anything limited, you have also gone beyond your body and all bodily limitations. The special service is to take everyone from the limited into the unlimited. Why did Father Brahma become avyakt? In order to remove you from the limited and take you into the unlimited. The practical form of love for Father Brahma is to follow Father Brahma. Father Brahma is calling His right hand children, his special arms, from the subtle region, from the place of unlimited service, with arms outspread and to take their hands in his hands. Father Brahma has love for the children. So Father Brahma is calling out: Children, come into the unlimited. Can you hear this sound? Brahma Baba always has the particular enthusiasm that you all become those with an unlimited crown, the same as him, and spread the light and might of revelation everywhere in such a way that all souls are able to see rays of hope where there is hopelessness. Everyone's finger should point to this particular place. Those who are searching with their fingers pointing beyond the sky should experience that the stars of the earth have been revealed on this earth, on the land of blessings. Let the sun, the moon and the galaxy of stars be experienced here. Just as scientists on the basis of science are able to give an experience of the galaxy, in the same way, those who are far away should experience the living galaxy of the earth. All of you are instrument souls to fulfil this pure desire. You have made such unlimited plans, have you not? The plans have been made according to your capacity. According to the time now, what service does BapDada want from you children?

Today, Bap and Dada were having a conversation. What was their conversation? The Father said: All My elevated children, my long-lost and now-found children, my most beloved special children and the children who are constant companions of the Father, who are instruments, have all gathered together on the land of blessings in order to make plans. So Father Brahma said: The plans that you have created in the meeting are very good. However, one main service still remains to be done, because you are ones with such great authority, and you have so many types of authority – the authority of knowledge, the authority of the power of yoga, the authority of being an embodiment of elevated inculcation, the authority of being a direct heir of the Father and the authority of being an instrument for world transformation. You have so many authorities. For instance, there are those who have the authority of the scriptures, there are those who have the authority of renouncing something and of becoming pure and so they have just one authority. They don't have the authority of truth and although they are great souls, in terms of a relationship with God, the Father, they are not an authority of accurate knowledge. Those who have just one authority have been able to attract souls of the world towards themselves and have been moving along by proving what is false to be the truth. They have been showing their authority for so long. They influence others with so much intoxication and with the sparkle of limited attainment. So what do the elevated souls who have many authorities have to do? Do you know what still remains to be done? How much longer do you estimate you have till completion? Up to the year 1984 or up to the century (2000)? How much longer do you estimate? Will you complete the year 2000 or will it happen before then? What do you think according to the preparations you have made so far? What still remains to be done? You are preparing the land for the new world. However, the basis of the new world is new knowledge. What is the first praise? You say: The Ocean of Knowledge. So have you revealed to the world the new knowledge which is the first thing in the praise? Until you reveal that this is new knowledge, how can you reveal the Bestower of Knowledge? Only through this new knowledge will He be revealed. Until people have the difference of what souls say and what God says in their intellect, how would they be able to let go of the little supports they are holding onto and take the support of the One? At the moment, they are moving along with tiny supports, considering them to be their support for everything. Until they experience the support of the Bestower of Knowledge through the knowledge, they cannot be liberated from limited bondages. As yet, you have only done the service of preparing the land and of transforming the atmosphere. The task is good and there is the love of the family, and this love becomes instrumental to transform the atmosphere. The land has been prepared and will continue to be made ready. However, the foundation, the newness and the seed is new knowledge. They experience that there is altruistic love, that there is spiritual love, but now, the revelation that, together with love, you souls also have the authority of knowledge, that you are authorities of true knowledge still remains. All those who come should feel that this is something new and that it is new knowledge; that here they can hear what no one has ever told them before. They should say that you who give this knowledge are authorities of that. Of course there is the foundation of purity, peace, love and cleanliness that you have, and on the basis of this foundation, the land has been transformed. These are the four pillars. Previously, no one's intellect would remain here, whereas now, on the basis of the four pillars, their intellect is attracted here. There has been this much transformation. However, now let the sound be heard everywhere of the main thing – that this is new knowledge. Up until now, whatever people have been saying "yes" for, the BK Almighty Authorities prove that to be "no" and for whatever they have been saying "no", you say "yes". Therefore, there is the difference of day and night between yes and no. The great souls will prove this great difference. Now reveal this name and there will be the cries of victory. Even if they don't have knowledge of the soul in an accurate way, they still listen to this knowledge and mix it with things they hear elsewhere, saying this is what others also say. However, now let the sound be heard that the whole world is on one side and the BKs are on the other side; that you are the authority who gives new knowledge. This authority should become well known. It is through this that powerful souls will come forward and beat the drums on your behalf. You won't have to beat the drums, but such souls will be satisfied and will beat the drums with new enthusiasm when they know this to be something new. The battle of religion is yet to take place. You haven't yet shaken the gaddis of the gurus. At present, all the branches and twigs are comfortably engaged in their own concerns. When is a seed revealed? Do you know when the seed comes up above? When all the leaves on the big and small branches have totally dried up and only the empty branches remain, the seed is revealed So, have you made a plan for that? When you come onto your own stage, your original knowledge should of course be revealed. If, even after coming to the land of blessings, they just say that the peace here is very good, that the love here is very good, if they go back having filled their aprons with just this little, then what did they especially take from the land of blessings? The new knowledge also has to be revealed. The Almighty Authority will be revealed through the authority of this new knowledge. Who is the Bestower? When they receive love and peace, they definitely believe that it is someone elevated who made you like this. However, it is only a few who understand that it is God Himself. So, do you understand what still remains to be done? Now spread the new knowledge everywhere for the new world. Do you understand? Even if only a handful out of multimillions emerge, souls should emerge and the sound should spread everywhere in the papers that the BKs give completely new knowledge in the world. The knowledge you give, what you believe to be the basis of that knowledge, and how you prove that knowledge – when all of this is printed in the papers, then you can understand that the drums of revelation of the Bestower of Knowledge are being beaten. Do you understand? Let them become influenced by the influence of knowledge. What is the difference in being influenced by knowledge and being influenced by love? You saw two groups of Brahmins. You have become Brahmins, but some have become that on the basis of love and some on the basis of both love and knowledge. So, there is a difference in the stage of each group, is there not? Those who understand love with knowledge will continue to move along whilst being free from obstacles. Those who simply move along on the basis of love will not be powerful souls. The power of knowledge is definitely needed. There is so much difference between those who have love for the study and love for the murli and those who just have love for the family. There is so much difference between those who come here on the basis of liking just the Brahmin life or just purity and those who come here on the basis of the power of knowledge. The intoxication of knowledge is spiritual intoxication that keeps you free from any dependency. In fact, even love is a power, but those who move along on the basis of the power of love are unable to continue without a support. They definitely need one or another support. Those who have the power of knowledge would also have the power of churning. The more churning power you have, the more you will automatically develop the power of concentration. And, when the intellect is concentrated, you will automatically develop the power to discern and the power to decide. Where there is no foundation of knowledge, then because there isn't any concentration, the power to discern and the power to decide will be weak. Achcha.

BapDada hears everything. He is amused and also sacrifices Himself because of His love for you. Seeing the courage of the children, He is also very happy. Father Brahma feels a lot more that his children should become masters of the unlimited. He is waiting for you children and he remains engaged in serving you day and night. There is no day or night in the subtle region, but there is day and night in the corporeal world. He wants to see every child as a special soul, a complete soul, a perfect soul and a soul who is equal The Father says to Brahma: Have patience! However, Brahma has a lot of enthusiasm. This is why the conversation he has with the Father is that you children should put your hand in the Father's hand, and become equal to Him. What speciality did you see in the physical life of Brahma Baba from the beginning? He always said: "ab" (now), and not "kab" (at some time). He neither had the sanskar of listening to the word "when" nor did he say it to others. If a child said that he would do something after an hour, did Baba let him take an hour? The train would stop, and the child would arrive at the station. A moving train would stop, because the child had to reach there. You saw this in a practical way, did you not? In the same way, in any situation, in terms of self-transformation and world-transformation, now change the word "kab" and put the word "ab" (now) into your practical life. This is the enthusiasm that Brahma Baba has all the time. So, you are following the father, are you not? Achcha.

Out of the plans that the maharathis have made for service, there have been plans made especially for the youth, have there not? Before you do service of the youth, since the youth wing is moving forward with the thought of revealing itself in front of the Government, since you are coming onto the field, always pay attention to one thing: Speak less and do more. You mustn't show them through your words, but you have to show them practically. Give a lecture of actions on the stage. If you want to learn how to give lectures with your mouth, learn that from politicians! However, the spiritual youth wing is not one that gives lectures just with their mouth, but their eyes, their forehead and their actions become instruments to give lectures. No one can give lectures through actions, but many people give lectures through words. Actions can reveal the Father. Actions can prove spirituality. Secondly, the youth wing should always keep with them a spiritual lucky charm for constant success. What would that be? To give regard is to receive regard. This record of giving regard will become an imperishable record of success. The youth wing should constantly have on their lips just the one mantra of success: You first! Make this great mantra firm in your mind. It shouldn't be that through your lips you say, "You first", but internally you feel that it should be "me first". There are some such clever children who say in words, "You first", but internally, they have the feeling, "Me first". When you think about it, this great mantra that accurately stops the consciousness of "Me first" and makes others move forward is, in fact, making the self move forward, and attaining success. Do you understand? If you constantly have this mantra and lucky charm with you, then the drums of revelation will beat. Achcha. Om shanti.

Blessing: May you be loved by all and transform yourself by recognising the time and the atmosphere.

Those who have the power of transformation are the most loved by everyone. They are very easy in their ideas. They have the power to mould themselves. They never say, "Why were my ideas, my plans, my service not accepted even though they were so good?" To have the consciousness of "mine" means to have alloy mixed. Therefore, recognise the time and atmosphere and transform yourself and you will be loved by all and become a number one victorious soul.

Slogan: Become those who end all problems, not an embodiment of problems.
