

26/05/02 Madhuban Avyakt BapDada Om Shanti 25/12/83

The days of the confluence age are days of celebrating the greatest pleasure of all.

Today, the greatest Father is giving congratulations from the heart to the greatest children of all. Baba is giving greetings for Christmas to all the children who are even sweeter than raisins (kismis). The greatest days are the days of the confluence age. Bad days have now ended and it is now the confluence age, the day of happiness to celebrate with enthusiasm. This is the day when the Seed of the tree tells the story of the kalpa tree. On this great day of the confluence age, sparkling, elevated Brahmin souls sparkle at the foundation of the kalpa tree and make the whole tree sparkle. The lucky and lovely stars make the tree extremely beautiful. The living sparkling stars are the decoration of the tree. Sparkling white and light angels make the tree sparkle. On this day, people decorate a Christmas tree as a memorial of this. During this great day of the confluence age, with the enthusiasm of celebrating a festival, you change night into day. You transform darkness into light. The Brahmin family meets on this great day and eats food for the soul, Brahma Bhojan, with a lot of love. This is why, as a memorial, all the families get together and eat, drink and celebrate with pleasure. Throughout the whole cycle, the day and the age to celebrate with pleasure is the confluence age, and you can celebrate to your heart's content as much as you want at this confluence age. The intoxication of the nectar of knowledge makes you become absorbed in love. They especially experience this spiritual intoxication on a great day. At brahm-muhurat of the confluence age, at amrit vela, you opened your eyes to your elevated birth and what did you receive? How many gifts did you receive? You opened your eyes and you saw the old Baba. You saw the white Baba. You also saw the red in the white, did you not? Whom did you see? You saw the Father who brings peace. How many gifts did He give you? He gave you so many gifts that you will continue to be sustained by those gifts for birth after birth. You won't have to buy anything. The biggest gift of all He gave you was the bracelet of love, which is even more valuable than diamonds. He gave you the bracelet of God's magic. With this, you can attain whatever you want as soon as you have the thought and you invoke it. There is nothing lacking in the treasure-store of Brahmins. All of you children received such a gift as soon as you opened your eyes. All of you have received it, have you not? Is there anyone left out? This is the importance of the great day. The signs of the memorial of the first Brahmins are continuing through to the last religion because all of you elevated Brahmin souls are the foundation of the whole tree. You are the grandfathers and great-grandfathers of all souls. All of them are your branches. All of you very great Brahmins are the foundation of the tree. This is why even today souls of all religions celebrate in one form or another the memorial of you souls and the customs and systems of your confluence age. You are such worthy-of-worship souls from time immemorial. In comparison to the Supreme Soul you are doubly worthy-of-worship. You are celebrating the days of pleasure whilst considering yourselves to be the greatest and most elevated of all, are you not? The days of celebration are so few. According to the cycle, you celebrate a great deal just the one great day. Dance in happiness. Eat Brahma Bhojan and sing songs of happiness. Do you have any other worries? What do carefree emperors do throughout the day? They celebrate in pleasure, do they not? Celebrate with pleasure of the mind. Don't celebrate the pleasure of the limited day. Celebrate the unlimited day and the pleasure of remaining free from sorrow in an unlimited way. Do you understand? Why have you come to the Brahmin world? To celebrate in pleasure. Achcha.

Special congratulations to all the double-foreign children everywhere for celebrating the pleasure of the great day of all. BapDada has especially come to give you the gift of a meeting. Now there are very few of you and yet you have to sit far away. When expansion takes place, everything will be just for the sake of having a vision. At that time, there won't be a chance to have a personal meeting. You will just have a glimpse. Receiving drishti will be changed into simply having a glimpse. The drishti that you receive at the end will be changed on the path of devotion and they will simply use the word "darshan" (glimpse). What is the special intoxication that double foreigners have? There is a song: The high walls of the world... There are the barriers of high walls, of big oceans, and of countries of the world. So you have come having crossed the barriers of high countries, the barriers of religion, the barriers of knowledge, the barriers of beliefs and the barriers of customs and systems. Even the people from Bharat meet Baba. Even the people of Bharat have received the inheritance, but they are in the same country. They haven't had to cross such big barriers. They have simply crossed the barrier of devotion. However, the double-foreign children have crossed many types of high barrier and this is why they have double intoxication. You have crossed the many types of curtains of the world. Therefore, double love and remembrance to the children who have crossed them. You have made that effort. However, the Father's love has made you forget the effort. Achcha.

To all the most elevated worthy-of-worship souls; to all the greatest of all children who give light and might to everyone; to those who constantly celebrate in spiritual pleasure in the world of pleasure; to those who maintain enthusiasm and celebrate every day as a festival; to those who attain the unlimited gift of God; to the elevated sparkling stars of the kalpa tree, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

Meeting a U K group:

Do all of you consider yourselves to be long-lost and now-found ones? Baba has found you with so much love everywhere and put you in the bouquet. By becoming part of the bouquet all of you have become spiritual roses. Spiritual roses mean those who give imperishable fragrance. Do you consider yourselves to be this? All of you have the intoxication that the Father loves you, do you not? Each of you would say that no one else is as loving to the Father as you are. Just as there is no one else as loving as the Father, so too, the children would also say the same because the Father has special love for each one according to your speciality. Although you are numberwise, all of you are especially loved. Only the Father and you know the value of you children; no one else can know it. All others consider you to be ordinary. However, you, whom the Father has made belong to Him, are a selected few out of millions, and a handful out of that selected few. As soon as you belonged to the Father, you received all attainments. The Father gave all of you the keys to all treasures. He didn't keep them with Himself. He has so many keys that He gave them to all of you. This master key is such that you can use it for any treasure and attain that treasure. You don't have to make any effort. In any case, London is the place of a monarchy. You are not those who are going to become subjects. All are you are those who will move forward in service. Where there is attainment, you cannot stay without doing service. To do less service means you have less attainment. Those who are embodiments of attainment cannot stay without doing service. Look, all of you left this country and went abroad, yet the Father found you abroad and made you belong to Him. No matter how far away you ran, the Father still caught you. Achcha.

Meeting a group from Australia:

All of you are Mahavirs, are you not? A Mahavir group means those who bid farewell to Maya for all time. Have you celebrated such a ceremony? BapDada always says that Australia is the place of the brave, courageous ones. So, the residents of Australia are those who bid farewell to Maya for all time because the Father is with you, and Maya cannot come to you whilst you are in the Father's company. The Father is always with you and so you have bidden farewell to Maya. Those who bade farewell are the jewels of contentment. You are content with yourselves, you are content with service and you are content with your connections. You are content with everything. Such jewels of contentment are constantly seated on the heart-throne. Those who are seated on the heart-throne always remain happy and intoxicated. BapDada is looking at the jewels of contentment, the Mahavir group that is also the group of the conquerors of Maya. All of you are visible as experienced souls. You are also servers. Just as London has a special partin the speciality of service, so Australia too has a special part. BapDada gives the residents of Australia the certificate of those who are always ever ready for service and who are going to expand service. Achcha.

At the time of farewell:

All of you are still awake. There is always jagran (the staying awake through the night for special deities) taking place for all of you somewhere or another. Since your devotees stay awake for you, what is the big deal if you stay awake now? Everything begins at the confluence age. Whatever you do in knowledge, those people do in devotion. The foundation of devotion is also laid at the confluence age. Those are feelings and this is knowledge. All of you are going on service. It isn't that you are going back home. To go means to bring back the proof of service. Don't come back empty-handed. At least a bouquet is given as a present! So, bring a bouquet or a buttonhole. The question of how many you have prepared also has to be added to the form. Don't give a certificate a second time to those who have come empty-handed. In one year, at least prepare one person and bring him back with you. Achcha.

Blessing: May you be cheerful in your heart and on your face, and, with the royalty of purity, constantly remain cheerful.

Souls who have royalty, that is, the reality of purity, always dance in happiness. Their happiness never fluctuates. Day by day their happiness continues to increase all the time. They are not one thing internally and something else externally. Their attitude, eyes, words and activity are all filled with truth. Such real and royal souls are always cheerful in their heart and in their eyes and features. They are eternally cheerful in their heart and face.

Slogan: The power of purity is the most elevated power in the world. Imbibe this power and become powerful.
