The next evening, Aarav and Ishwari returned to the old banyan tree.

Brahma Baba welcomed them with a loving smile.

Aarav asked excitedly, "Brahma Baba, you promised to tell us the greatest secret."

We are ready to listen!"

Brahma Baba pointed toward the glowing red Star in the Soul World.

The time has come.

"I will tell you how Heaven returns to Earth."

THE FLOWER OF ♥ SHARING ♥

The children saw birds searching for food.
They felt compassion.

Aarav shared seeds
with the birds.

Ishwari shared fruit with hungry children.

Soon everyone
smiled together.

A rainbow-colored flower blossomed with beautiful light.

Brahma Baba said,
"When we share...
grows."

Sharing brings joy to others and fills our heart with love.

The Flower of Sharing

The children saw ways to share with everyone around them.

When we share, everyone is happy!

A rainbow-colored flower blossomed.

Sharing can be many beautiful ways!

We say thank you for every small blessing.

• Respect

We respect everyone—elders, teachers and friends.

think good thoughts and connect with God.

When I go within,
I find peace and strength.

thoughts, words and actions pure
and clean.

Purity makes my soul shine.

We wait calmly and do the right thing
at the right time.

I am patient, I stay calm and trust the right time.

6 Madhurata

make others feel happy.

Sweet words

proud.

I am humble, I respect
everyone.

8 Sahanshilata

(Tolerance)

We understand others, stay calm and tolerate with love.

I tolerate with love
and stay at peace.

When these divine qualities blossom in us...

...our inner garden
becomes beautiful and the world becomes better!

We all began as one, in the original spiritual family.

As time passed,
new branches
slowly grew.

Some branches bloomed with lotus flowers.

Others with roses.

Others with
jasmine.

Beautiful birds of many colors built nests in every branch.

Brahma Baba said,
"As the world grew...
different cultures
and religions appeared."

But every branch belongs to the same tree.

EVERY BRANCH IS BEAUTIFUL

The children walked beneath
the giant tree.
Each branch looked different.

Some leaves
were green.

Some were golden.

Some were red.

Some were silver.

Every branch
was healthy
and beautiful.

Brahma Baba smiled.
"No branch is better than another."

Every branch
has its own beauty.

Every branch is unique and worthy of respect.

सृष्टि-वृक्ष की सत्य कहानी सुना रहे हैं शिव भगवान॥

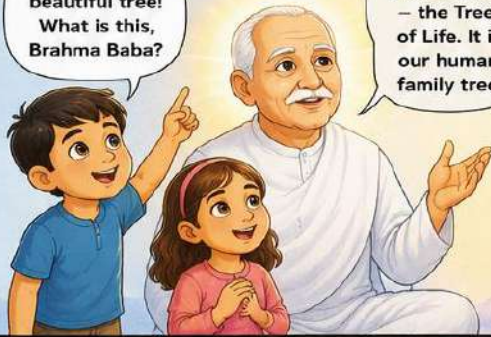

THE REAL KALPVUKSHA

The Wish-Fulfilling Tree that Gives All Happiness

Wow! What a beautiful tree! What is this, Brahma Baba?

This is the Kalpvruksha – the Tree of Life. It is our human family tree.

Just like a tree has one trunk and many branches, we all are one human family.

Long, long ago... we all lived as children of God in the Golden Age (Satyug).

As time passed, many branches appeared – different cultures, religions and traditions.

But the trunk is one – because we all are souls, children of the One Supreme Father.

No branch is higher or lower. All are equal and beautiful.

The Kalpvruksha gives us everything we need – peace, love, happiness, knowledge, purity, prosperity until a healthy world.

When we remember God, follow good values and respect everyone, the Kalpvruksha keeps giving us all that we wish for – not just for ourselves, but for the world.

We may look different, but we are One – a big spiritual family under One Father.

PAGE 1 – THE CLOCK THAT NEVER STOPS

THIS CLOCK HAS ONLY FOUR PARTS – FOUR AGES OF THE WORLD.
COME, LET'S UNDERSTAND EACH AGE.

THE FOUR AGES ARE:

- SATYUGA (GOLDEN AGE)
- TRETAYUGA (SILVER AGE)
- DWAPURYUGA (COPPER AGE)
- KALIYUGA (IRON AGE)

PAGE 1 – THE CLOCK THAT NEVER STOPS

The next morning, Brahma Baba took Aarav and Ishwari to a mysterious hill.

Wow!
What a big clock!

This is a magical clock, children. It shows the story of the World Drama.

Why is the Confluence Age so small?

Because between Kaliyuga and the new Satyuga there is a short, very special time – the Confluence Age (Sangamyug). It is only 100 years. About 90 years have already passed and only 9–10 years remain now.

LET'S UNDERSTAND EACH AGE...

SATYUGA (GOLDEN AGE) 1250 YEARS	TRETAYUGA (SILVER AGE) 1250 YEARS	DWAPARYUGA (COPPER AGE) 1250 YEARS	KALIYUGA (IRON AGE) 1250 YEARS	CONFLUENCE AGE (DIAMOND AGE) (SANGAMYUG) 100 YEARS
A world of complete purity, peace, love and happiness. Everyone lives like kings and queens.	Still very happy and peaceful. There is respect, purity and prosperity, but a little change begins.	People start forgetting their original values. Many religions are founded in this age.	Sorrow, disease, fights, greed and pollution increase. People forget they are souls.	God comes in a human form to teach Rajyoga and awaken souls. A new Golden Age begins again.

So this is the most special time!

Yes, Ishwari! We are living in the Confluence Age – the turning point of the whole cycle.

I want to make the world a better place and bring the new Golden Age!

REMEMBER
The world cycle never stops. When one age finishes, the next age begins. This cycle keeps turning again and again.

The clock's first section began to glow brightly.

Suddenly, the children found themselves in a beautiful golden kingdom.

The clock hands show the present time. The short hand is at the very start of Satyuga (Golden Age) and the long hand is very, very close to it. Only about 9–10 years of Confluence Age are left.

They entered the Golden Age!
A world full of happiness, peace and purity.

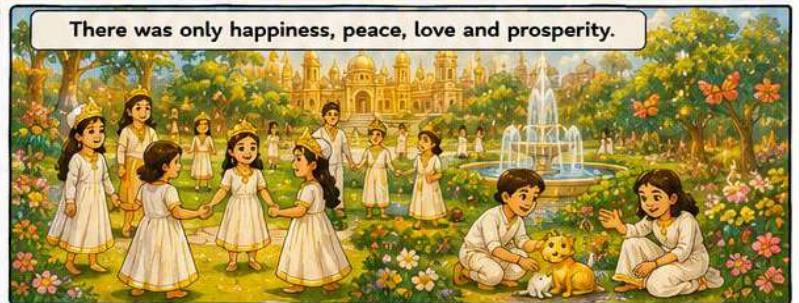

Golden palaces sparkled in the sunlight.

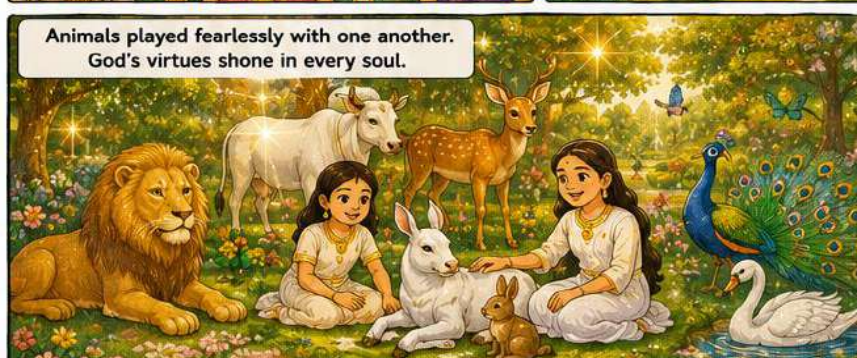

Everyone wore magnificent royal clothes with crowns and jewels.

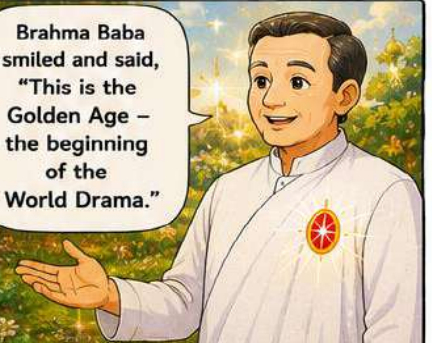

There was only happiness, peace, love and prosperity.

Animals played fearlessly with one another. God's virtues shone in every soul.

Brahma Baba smiled and said,
"This is the Golden Age – the beginning of the World Drama."

★ THE GOLDEN AGE (SATYUGA) – 1250 YEARS – A WORLD OF PURITY, PEACE AND PROSPERITY. ★

PAGE 3 THE SILVER AGE (TRETAYUGA)

As the clock's second section glowed, the children saw another beautiful world.

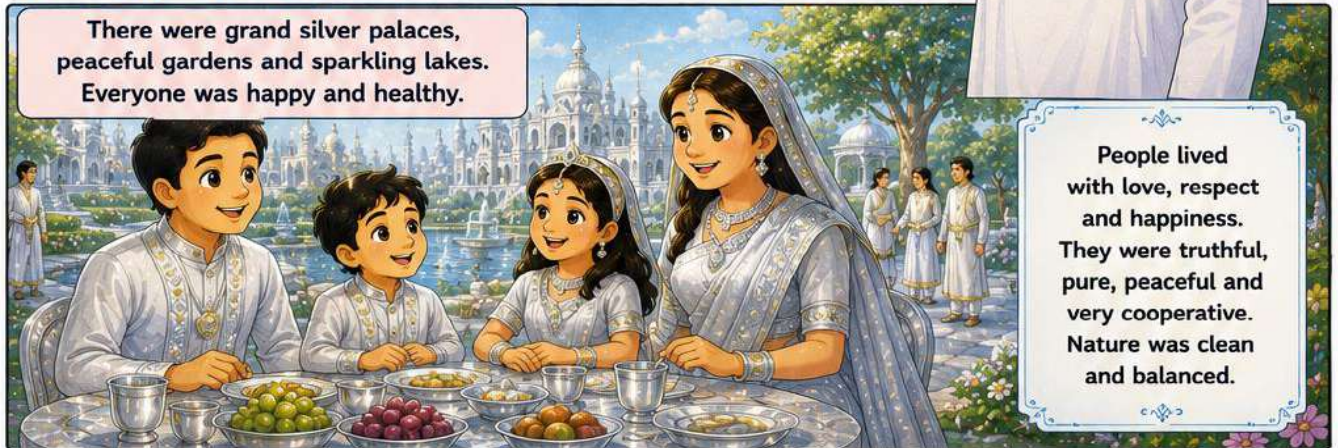

This was the Silver Age!

This is the Silver Age (Tretayuga). The world is still very beautiful and full of peace.

There were grand silver palaces, peaceful gardens and sparkling lakes. Everyone was happy and healthy.

People lived with love, respect and happiness. They were truthful, pure, peaceful and very cooperative. Nature was clean and balanced.

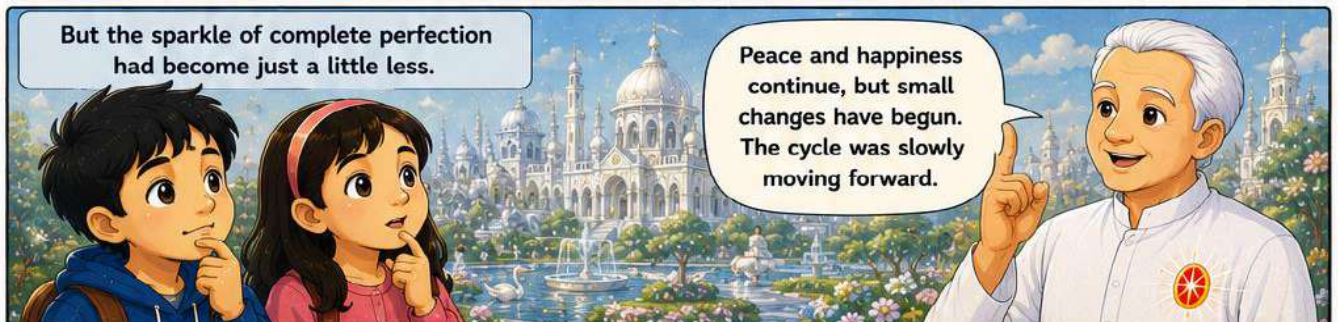

Everyone enjoyed their life. There was happiness, peace, love and prosperity everywhere.

This is the Silver Age – Tretayuga.

But the sparkle of complete perfection had become just a little less.

Peace and happiness continue, but small changes have begun. The cycle was slowly moving forward.

As the clock's second section glowed, the children saw another beautiful world.

This was the Silver Age!

Peace and happiness continue, but small changes have begun.

As the clock's third section began, the brightness reduced further.

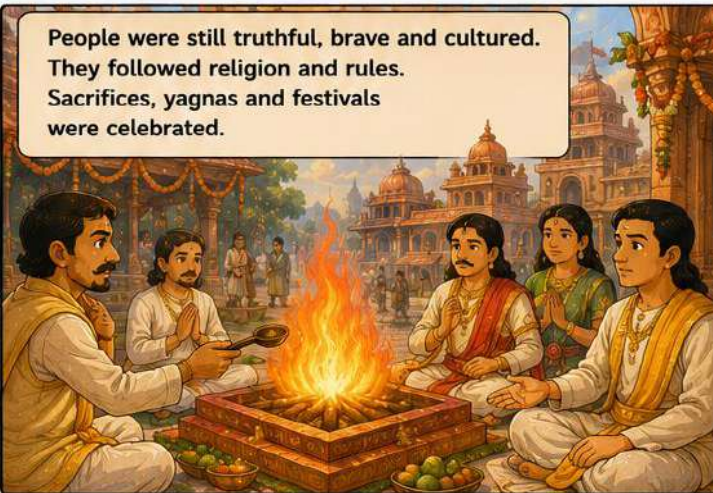

This was the
Copper Age
(Dwaparyuga).

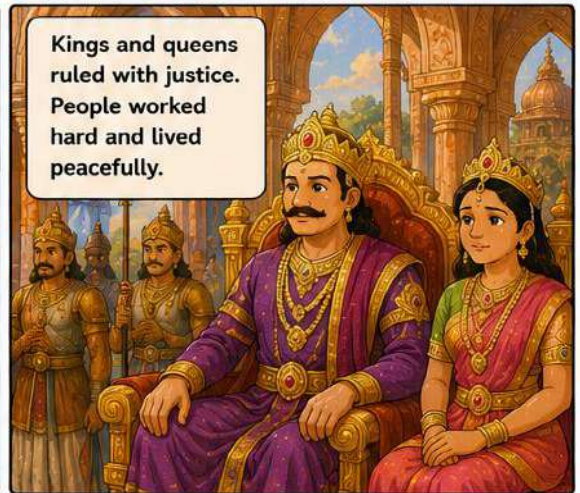

People's virtues decreased a little. There was still happiness, but along with it came some sorrow, problems and differences.

People were still truthful, brave and cultured. They followed religion and rules. Sacrifices, yagnas and festivals were celebrated.

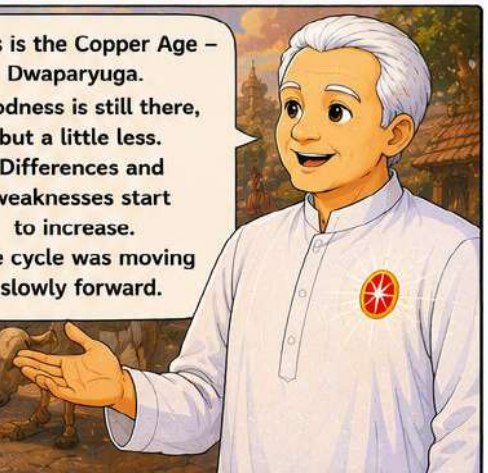

Kings and queens ruled with justice. People worked hard and lived peacefully.

But the sparkle of complete perfection had become even less.

This is the Copper Age – Dwaparyuga. Goodness is still there, but a little less. Differences and weaknesses start to increase. The cycle was moving slowly forward.

★ THE COPPER AGE (DWPARYUGA) – 1250 YEARS – A WORLD OF RELIGION, CULTURE AND PARTIAL PEACE ★

As the clock's fourth section began, the darkness increased.

This was the Iron Age (Kaliyuga).

People's virtues kept decreasing. Sorrow, problems and differences increased a lot.

There is anger, hatred, jealousy and selfishness everywhere. People fight with each other.

Truth and purity have almost disappeared. Untruth, cheating and corruption are common. People only think about themselves.

Nature is also polluted and unhappy. Illness, stress and fear are everywhere.

But still, a very small hope remains. God's light is still with us, showing the way back to peace and happiness.

THE IRON AGE (KALIYUGA) – 1250 YEARS –
A WORLD OF DARKNESS, SORROW AND CONFUSION, BUT WITH A SMALL HOPE.

PAGE 6 – THE CONFLUENCE AGE (SANDHI YUGA)

As the clock's final section began, the darkness started to end.

This is the Confluence Age (Sandhi Yuga).

This is the time of change – from darkness to light, from sorrow to happiness.

We can make the world beautiful again by changing ourselves.

This is our responsibility now.

The Confluence Age is very short.

A few years of effort can bring a new beautiful world.

Let's use this precious time wisely.

One evening, Aarav and Ishwari saw colorful lamps, lanterns, and sparkling lights decorating every home.

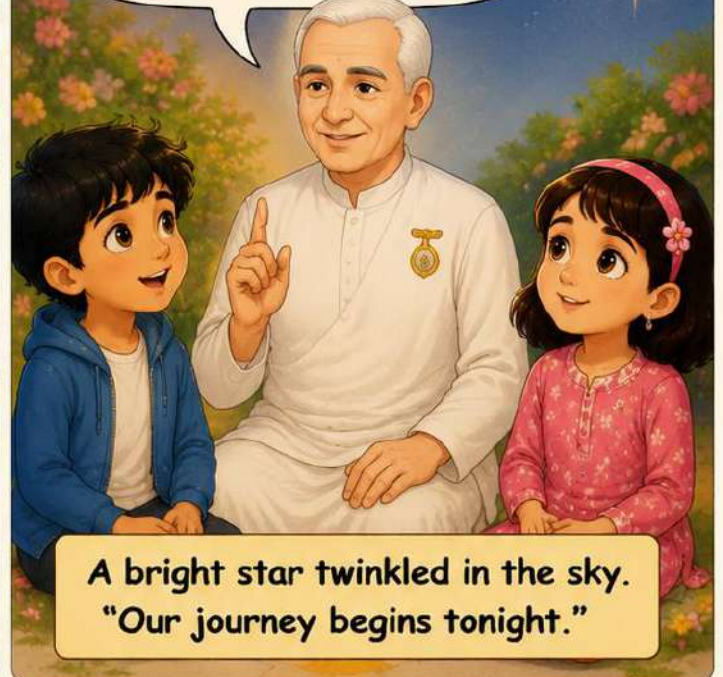

The streets were filled with joy. Children laughed happily.

Aarav asked, "Why do people celebrate festivals?"

Brahma Baba smiled. "Every festival reminds us of a beautiful spiritual truth."

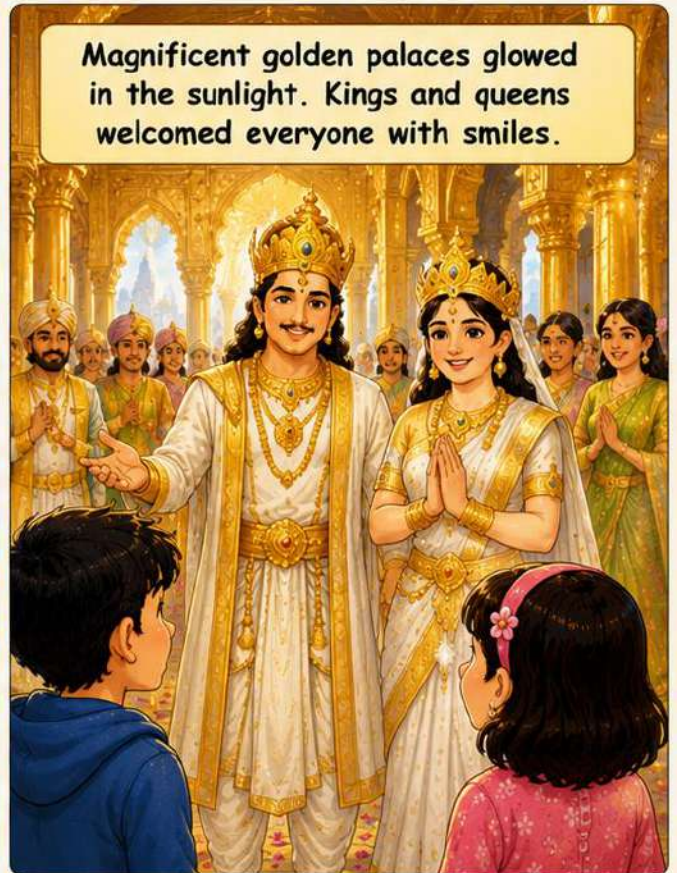

A bright star twinkled in the sky. "Our journey begins tonight."

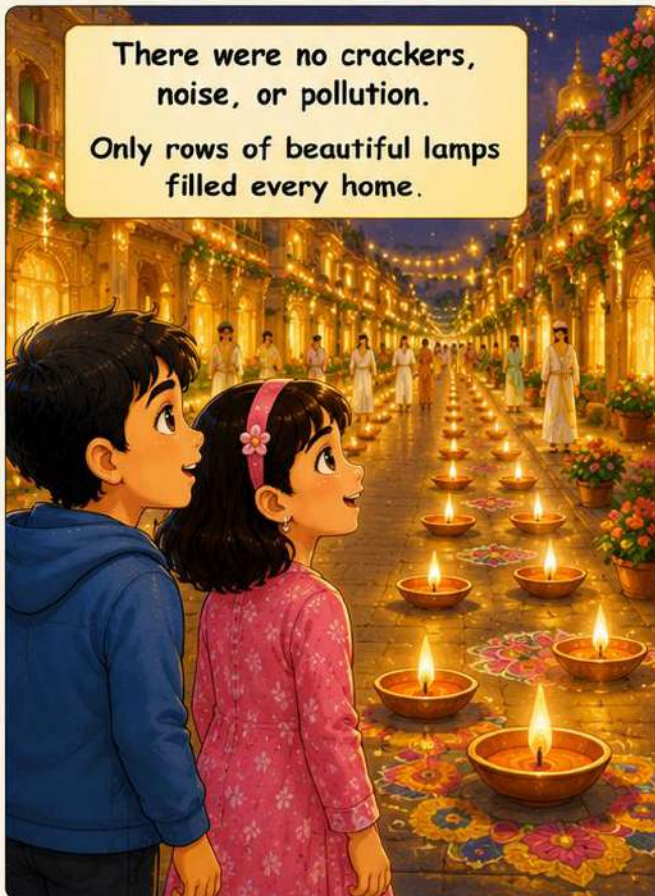

Suddenly, the children found themselves in the beautiful Golden Age.

Magnificent golden palaces glowed in the sunlight. Kings and queens welcomed everyone with smiles.

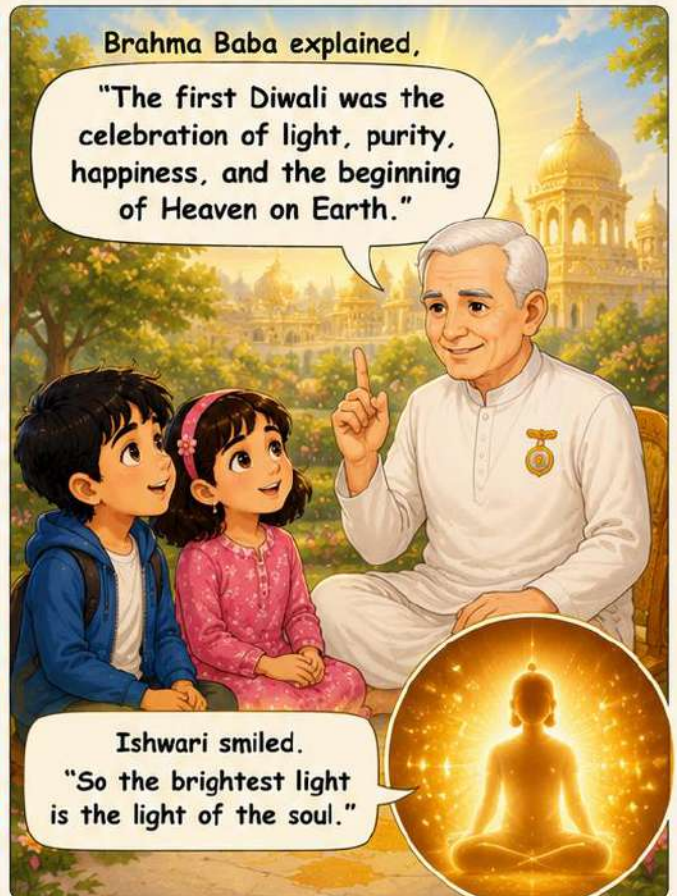

There were no crackers, noise, or pollution. Only rows of beautiful lamps filled every home.

Brahma Baba explained,

"The first Diwali was the celebration of light, purity, happiness, and the beginning of Heaven on Earth."

Ishwari smiled.
"So the brightest light is the light of the soul."

The scene changed.
A gentle sister tied a beautiful sacred thread on her brother's wrist.

Everyone promised to live with respect, kindness, and purity.

Brahma Baba said,

"The true thread
is not just on the wrist.
It is the promise we tie
to our own heart."

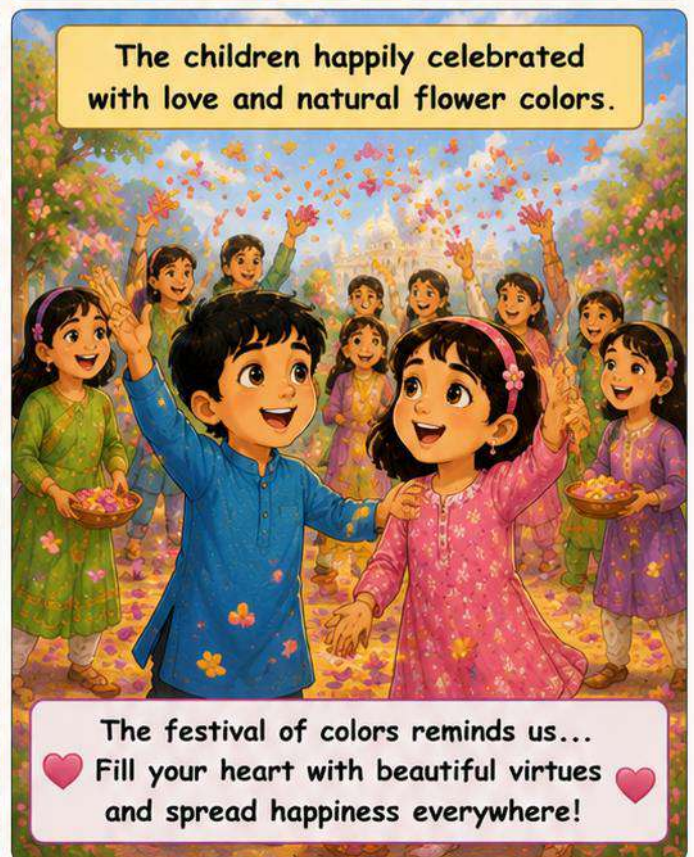

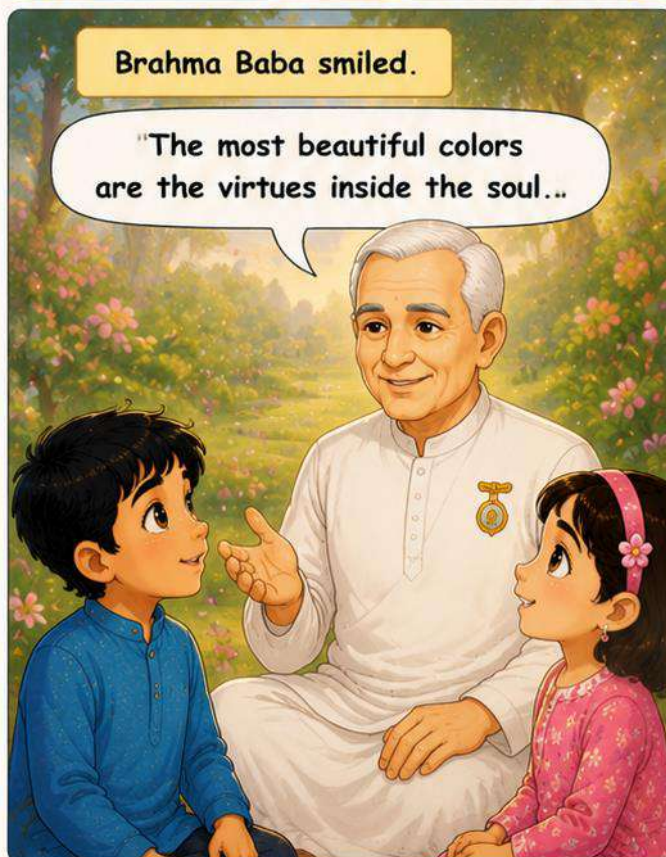

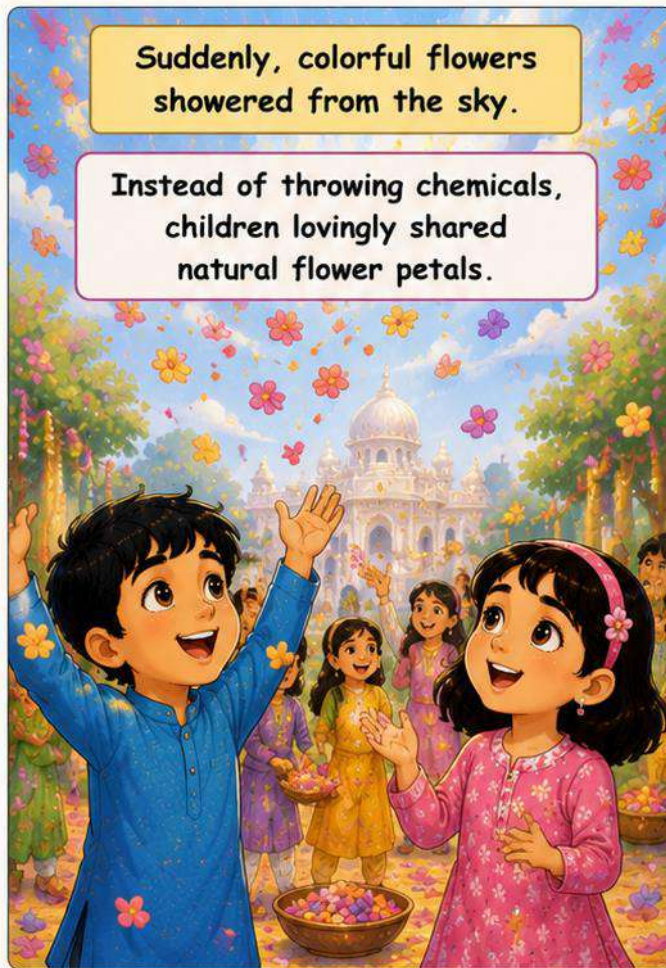

Aarav promised,

"I will always respect everyone."

♥ A small promise can make the world better! ♥

The magical journey ended.
The children returned home.

What a wonderful journey!
We learned so much.

They helped their parents and made their home happy.

Helping others is the first step to happiness.

They shared toys with friends,
fed hungry birds,
and watered plants.

Kind actions make the world
beautiful and peaceful.

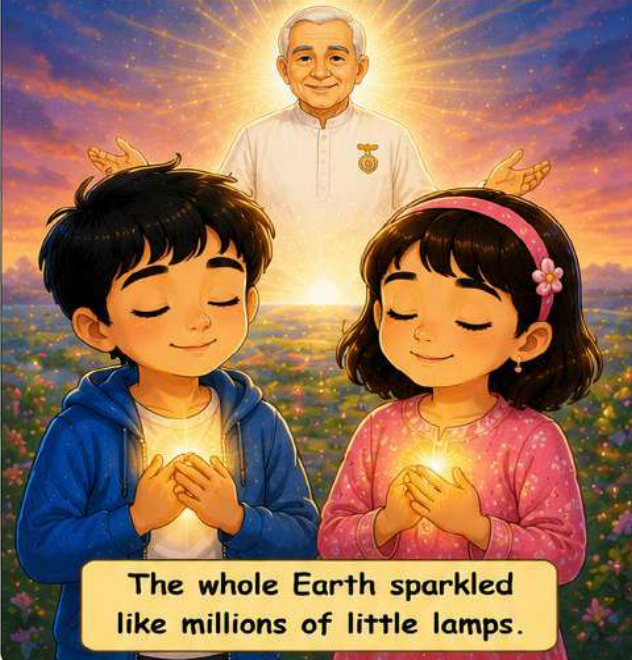

God lovingly said,

When every action is filled with love...
every day becomes a festival.

As the sun set,
a glowing light appeared in every child's heart.

The whole Earth sparkled like millions of little lamps.

My heart is my brightest lamp.

I will celebrate peace,
love, and kindness
every day.

Brahma Baba blessed them.

When the light inside shines...
the whole world becomes brighter. ♡

Tomorrow...
we will meet the wonderful animal friends who lived peacefully in Heaven.

A golden lion walked toward the children.

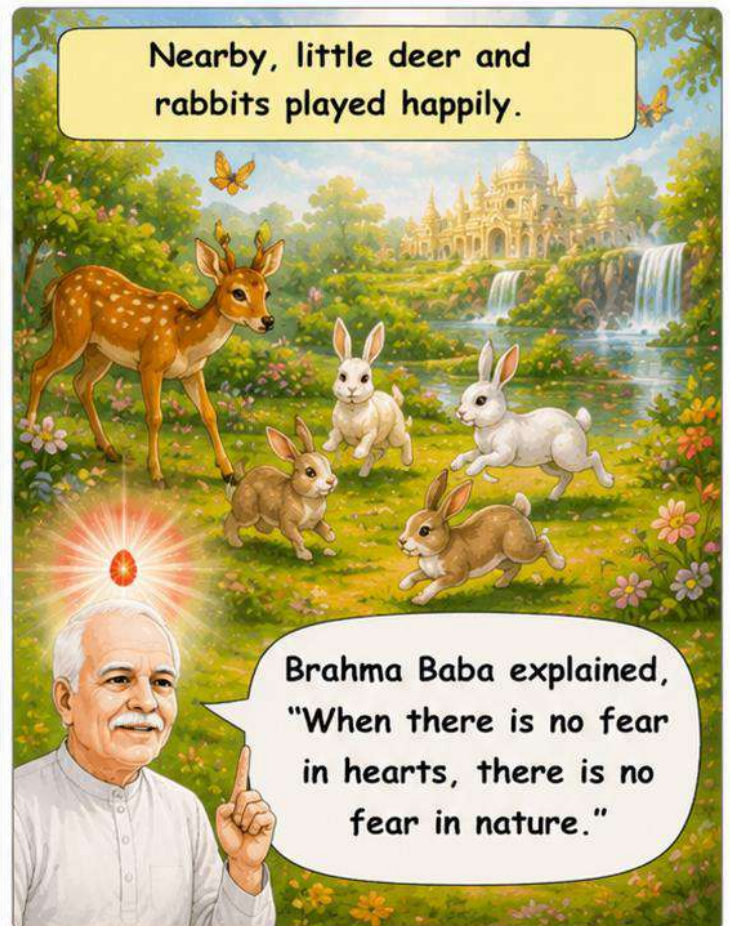

Instead of roaring fiercely, he gently bowed his head.

Aarav carefully stroked the lion's soft mane.

The lion purred like a giant cat.

Ishwari laughed, "I was never afraid."

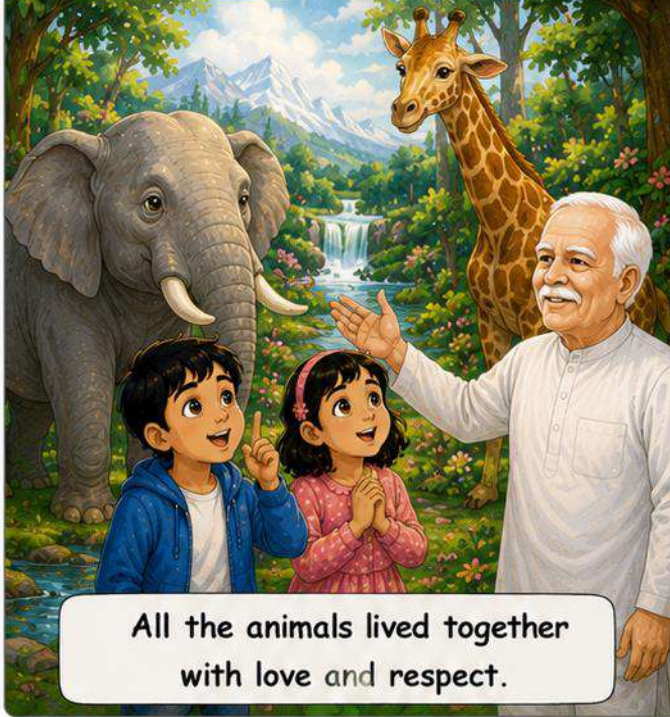

Nearby, little deer and rabbits played happily.

Brahma Baba explained, "When there is no fear in hearts, there is no fear in nature."

Deep inside the forest, elephants walked beside giraffes.

All the animals lived together with love and respect.

Monkeys happily shared sweet fruits.

They were caring,

A Land of Endless Beauty

The next morning, Aarav and Ishwari eagerly met Brahma Baba.

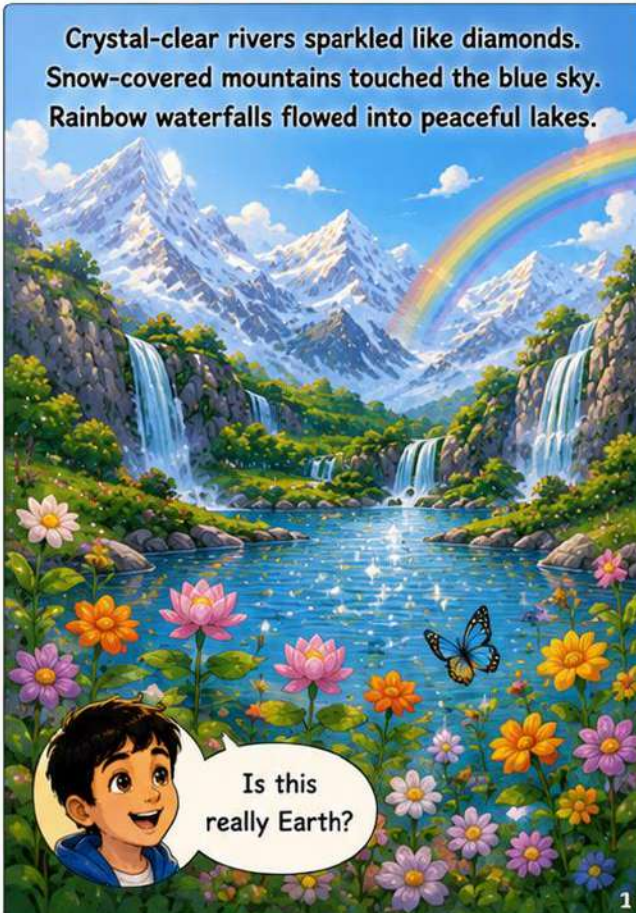

Today, children,
I will show you
one of Heaven's greatest treasures.

A golden ray of light surrounded them.
In an instant, they arrived in a breathtaking valley.

Crystal-clear rivers sparkled like diamonds.
Snow-covered mountains touched the blue sky.
Rainbow waterfalls flowed into peaceful lakes.

Is this really Earth?

Thousands of colorful flowers spread their sweet fragrance.
Butterflies danced in the gentle breeze.

Yes... This is the beautiful Nature Kingdom of the Golden Age.

The Five Friendly Elements

Brahma Baba pointed towards the bright blue sky.

Everything you see is protected by five loving friends.

The children watched as nature came alive.

1. The Sun (Light)

The Sun gave warm, gentle light.

Light helps plants grow and gives energy to everyone.

2. The Air

The cool Air carried sweet fragrances.

3. The Water

Crystal-clear Water flowed through rivers and lakes.

4. The Earth

The Earth grew delicious fruits, flowers, and forests.

5. The Sky (Space)

The vast Sky (Space) embraced everything peacefully.

Ishwari smiled.
"Nature takes care of everyone."

The Singing River

The children walked beside a sparkling river.

The water is so clear! I can see the fish so beautifully!

Look how happily
the river flows.

The water was so clear that they could see colorful fish swimming happily.

So many colors!
They look so happy!

Beautiful lotus flowers floated gently. Graceful swans glided peacefully.

The flowing river made soft musical sounds.

It feels like the river is singing.

Aarav closed his eyes.
"It feels like the river is singing."

Brahma Baba smiled.

Nature sings when every soul lives with peace and happiness.

The children quietly listened to nature's beautiful music.

4

The Talking Trees

Soon they entered a magical forest.

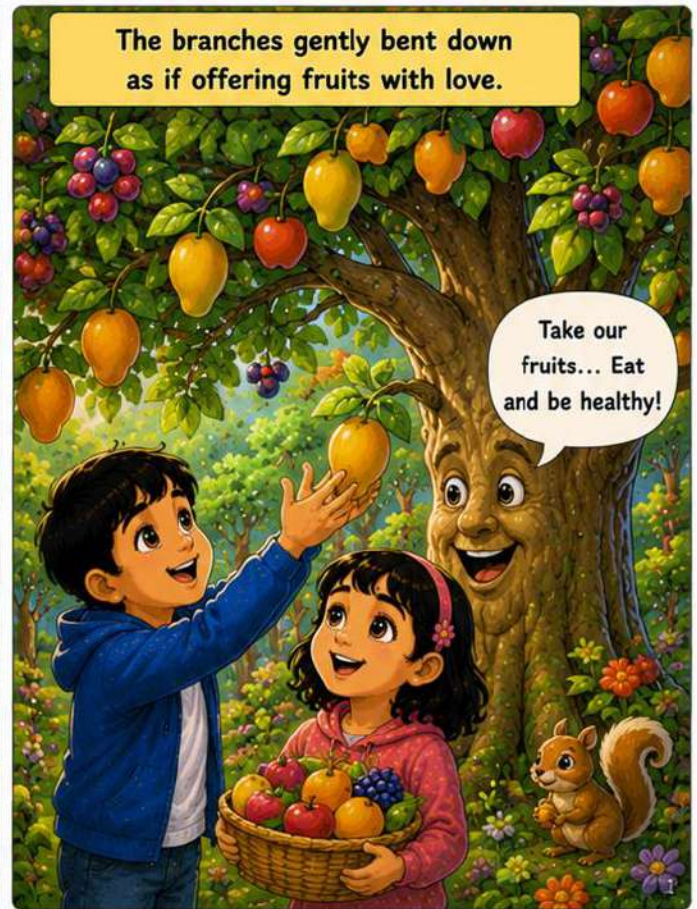

Huge trees were covered with juicy mangoes, apples, oranges, and sweet berries.

The trees look so happy and full of love!

The branches gently bent down as if offering fruits with love.

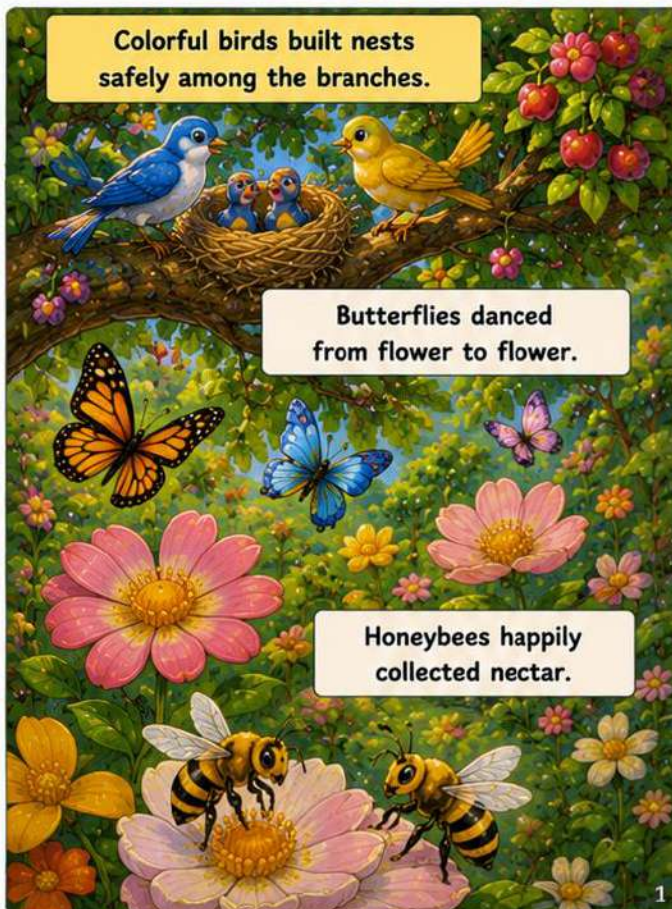

Take our fruits... Eat and be healthy!

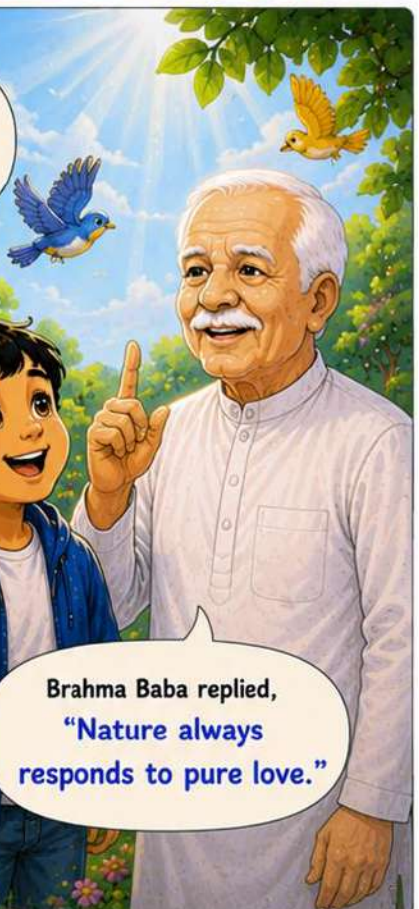

Colorful birds built nests safely among the branches.

Butterflies danced from flower to flower.

Honeybees happily collected nectar.

Ishwari laughed.
"The trees seem alive!"

Brahma Baba replied,
"Nature always responds to pure love."

5

Taking Care of Nature

Brahma Baba gave each child a small golden watering can.

Aarav planted a young tree.

Ishwari watered colorful flowers.

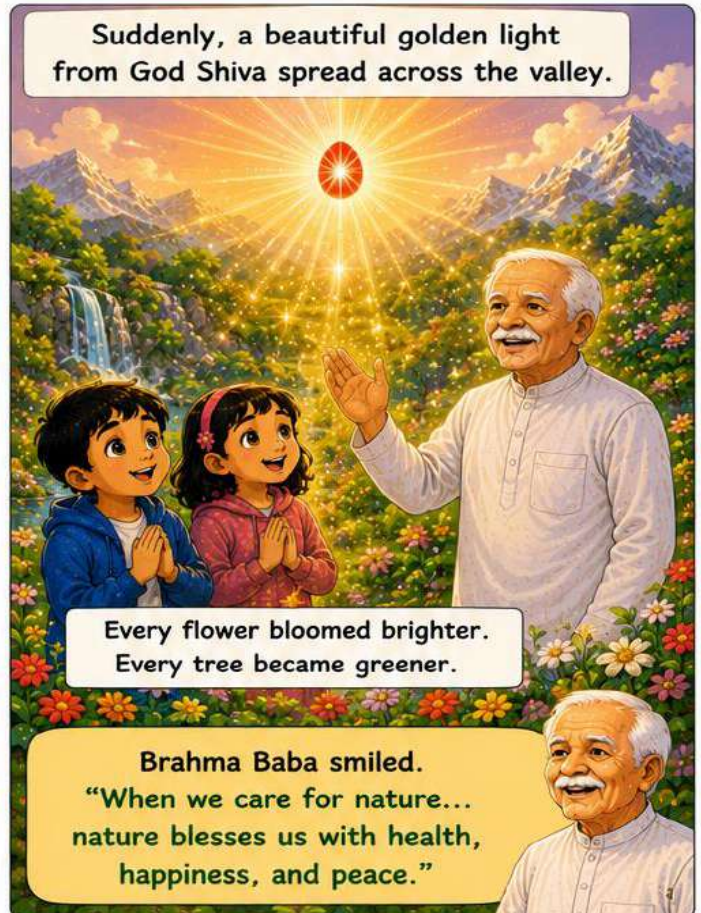

Together they cleaned the riverbank.

They fed birds with grains.

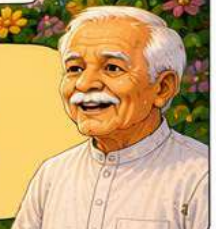

Suddenly, a beautiful golden light from God Shiva spread across the valley.

Every flower bloomed brighter.
Every tree became greener.

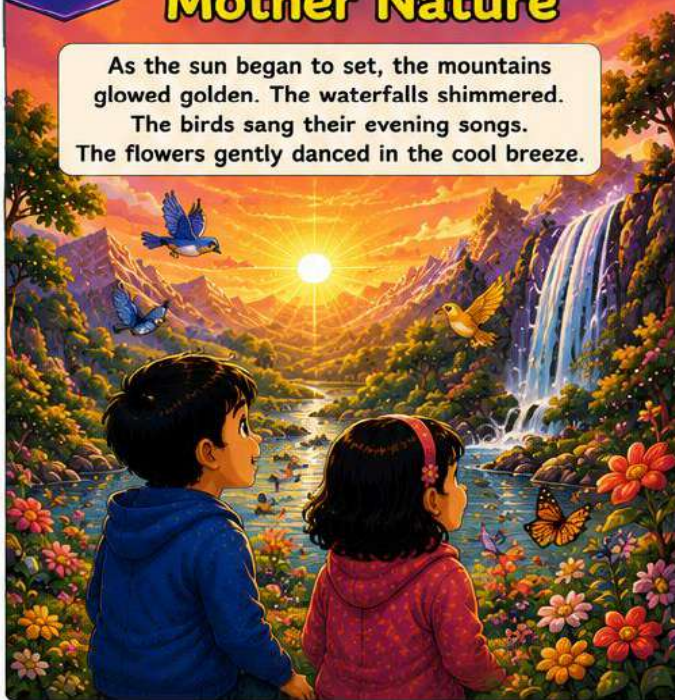

Brahma Baba smiled.
"When we care for nature...
nature blesses us with health,
happiness, and peace."

PAGE

A Promise to Mother Nature

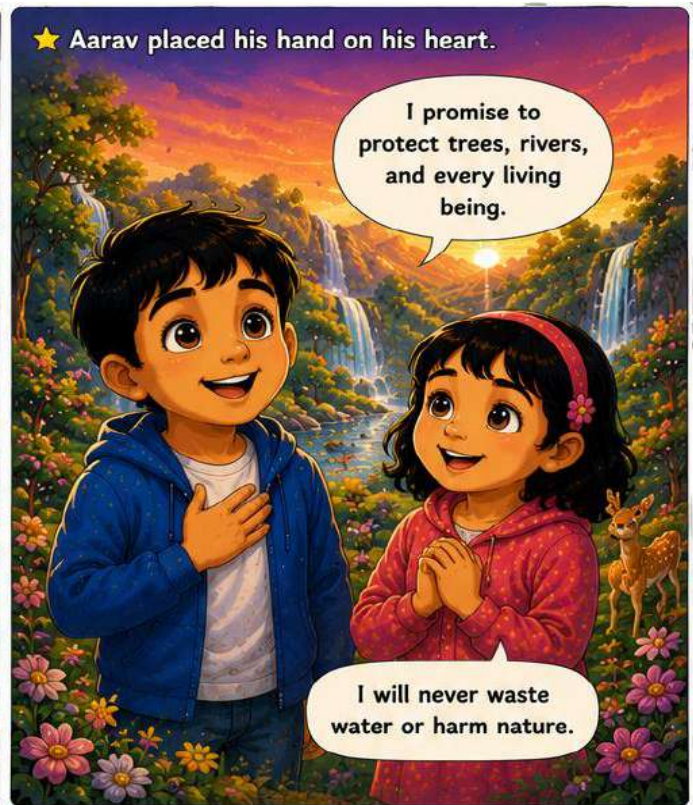

As the sun began to set, the mountains glowed golden. The waterfalls shimmered. The birds sang their evening songs. The flowers gently danced in the cool breeze.

★ Aarav placed his hand on his heart.

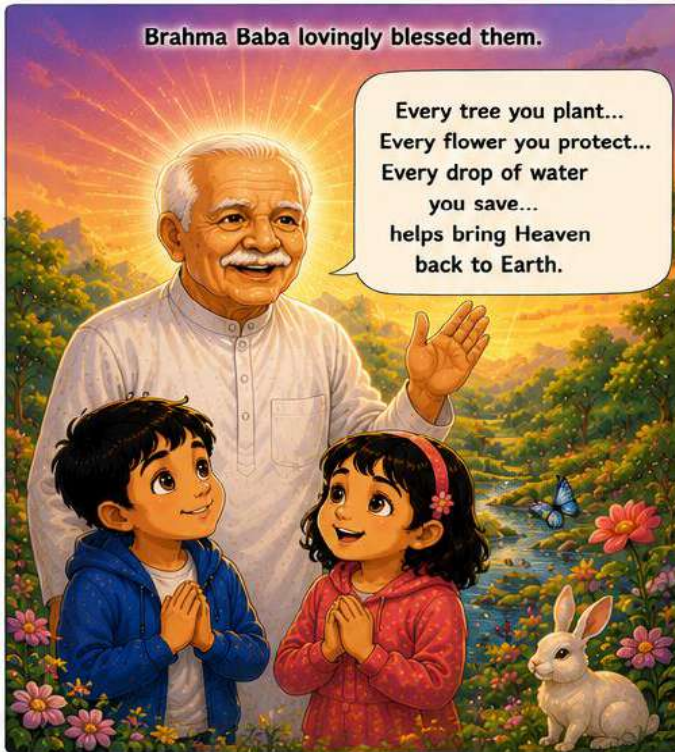

I promise to protect trees, rivers, and every living being.

I will never waste water or harm nature.

Brahma Baba lovingly blessed them.

Every tree you plant...
Every flower you protect...
Every drop of water you save...
